

TITLE IX COMPLIANCE & RELATED POLICIES

Statement of Care

As a Christian, Catholic, and Benedictine community, the University of Mary is wholly committed to upholding and defending the dignity of every human person as created in the image and likeness of God. Those who experience unfair treatment or unjust discrimination within the community of the University of Mary are especially worthy of the University's care and concern.

In accord with its mission, the University of Mary also upholds and enforces applicable requirements of civil law.

Policies and procedures are in place whereby those claiming wrongdoing can bring information forward and those accused of wrongdoing are able to respond.

Please visit www.umary.edu/dignity, where all of these policies and procedures are housed and explained.
