

POLICY ENFORCEMENT

Purpose

To ensure that all members of the university community are informed of the potential for disciplinary action when university policy is violated.

Statement of the Policy

Unless otherwise provided by a specific policy, violations of university policy will be handled through the university disciplinary procedure applicable to the alleged violator.

- For student procedures see (link)
- For faculty procedures (link)
- For support staff procedures see (link)

Approved

November 2009 by the Executive Committee of the University of Mary's Board of Trustees